To the Board of Directors
N. Hahn and Co., Inc.
New York, New York

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial position of N. Hahn and Co., Inc. as of December 31st, 2009 and the related statements of income, changes in stockholder's equity and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the corporation's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of N. Hahn and Co., Inc. as of December 31st, 2009 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained on Page Eight is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary and required by rule 17a-5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

N. HAHN AND CO., INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2009

Note 1 – Organization

N. Hahn and Co., Inc. provides investment banking services. It is a New York corporation formed on January 6th, 1998 and it reports the results of its operations on a calendar year basis. N. Hahn and Co., Inc. elected "S" corporation status effective January 1st, 1999.

Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

A summary of the significant accounting policies consistently applied in the preparation of the accompanying financial statements are as follows:

A. Principles of Accounting:

The financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

B. Furniture and Equipment:

The corporation has elected to capitalize as fixed assets certain equipment and office furnishings used in the business. The items so treated are those of significant cost that have a useful life of more than one year. For statement purposes and tax reporting purposes, Management expensed the cost of these assets in 1999 under Internal Revenue Code Section 179.

C. Income Taxes:

The corporation is not required to pay corporate-level tax on its earnings, except to New York City, which does not recognize "S" corporations. Rather, items of income, loss gains and deductions pass through to be reported on the shareholder's personal income tax returns.

D. Investments:

During 2000, FINRA (formerly NASD members such as the corporation were invited to purchase equity through two separate placements of NASDAQ securities. The corporation subscribed for 200 shares, paying $2,200.00. The corporation later in 2000 purchased warrants for an additional $1,400.00. Finally, in 2006 the corporation invested an additional $1,600.00 for a total investment of $5,200.00. Thus, the corporation at December 31st, 2009 owns 300 shares of NASDAQ OMX Group, Inc. (formerly The Nasdaq Stock Market Inc.), with a basis of $5,200 and a fair market value at December 31st, 2009 of $ 5,946.

These shares, and 1.064 shares of Johnson & Johnson common stock as of December 31, 2009 (basis $65, market value $69), in prior years were listed at cost as "Investments" in the Statement of Financial Position, and for SEC purposes were considered to be private illiquid investments. They are now considered to be "available for sale" securities. The securities are now listed at fair market value in the Current Assets section of the Statement of Financial Position as of December 31st, 2009. The difference between market value and cost for both securities, $750, is a component of the Stockholder's Equity section of the Statement of Financial Position as of December 31st, 2009, shown as "Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income".

E. Use of Estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reported period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

F. Cash and Cash Equivalents:

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, N. Hahn and Co., Inc. considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

G. Net Capital Requirements:

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1 (and the rule of the "applicable" exchange also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1). At December 31, 2009 the Company had net capital of $6,260, which was $1,260 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000.00. The Company's net capital ratio was .799 to 1.

Board of Directors
N. Hahn and Co., Inc.

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of N. Hahn and Co., Inc. as of and for the year ended December 31, 2009, and have issued our report thereon dated February 23th, 2010. Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

The information contained in Schedule 1 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Board of Directors
N. Hahn and Co., Inc.

In planning and performing our audit of the consolidated financial statements and supplemental schedules of N. Hahn and Co., Inc. for the year ended December 31st, 2009, we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the consolidated financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange commission we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons and recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13.
2. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.
3. Obtaining and maintaining physical possession or control of all fully paid and excess margin securities of customers as required by Rule 15 c3-3.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate. Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of one or more of the internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that misstatements caused by error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate as of December 31st, 2009, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

To the Board:

In connection with our audit of your financial statements for which we issued an opinion as part of our audit report dated February 23rd, 2010, a schedule reconciling the calculation of audited net capital to your unaudited calculation is required. However, if there are no material differences between the two, then a statement saying as much would suffice.

Our calculation of the audited net capital was equal to your unaudited net capital calculation, both totaling $6,260 as of December 31st, 2009. Thus, there are no differences at all between your calculation and ours.
